2 Persons Killed When Car Is Hit By Special Train

West Shore Train Crashes Auto on Tracks at Tomkins Cove Early Today

Tomkins Cove, N. Y., Aug. 18 (AP)—Two persons were killed early today and one was injured critically when the car in which they were passengers was hit by a special train on the West Shore Railroad tracks here, State Police reported.

Sgt. Thomas Borders, 24, stationed at the U. S. Military Academy, West Point, was killed instantly, police said, and Miss Beatrice L. Lusk, of Ganerville, N. Y., died before her body was removed from the car. Miss June Stager, 23, of Haverstraw, was taken to Orange hospital where she was reported in critical condition. Police said they believed Edwards' home was in Oklahoma City, Okla.

Police said the two couples had been visiting friends along the river front and were returning to Haverstraw.

Body Is Not Paula's, Investigators Report

Burlington, Vt., Aug. 18 (AP)—The possibility a headless body found in the Winooski river was that of Paula Welden, missing Bennington College sophomore, was virtually ruled out today by investigators.

State's Attorney Lawrence H. Deshaw said the body was badly decomposed but he thinks it's a man. He said it had been in the water for at least eight months.

Blonde Paula Welden vanished from the Bennington College campus last Dec. 1. A wide-spread search has failed to reveal a single trace of the 18-year-old daughter of a Stamford, Conn., engineer.

Deshaw said "the time this body has been in the water would seem to rule out the possibility it was the Welden girl."

An autopsy will be performed today.

Two Are Rescued

Monmouth Beach, N. J., Aug. 18 (AP)—A Brooklyn machinist and his girl friend who had started out Saturday night for a cruise around New York harbor were rescued from the storm-tossed Atlantic ocean after being buffeted for 16 hours in a rented motorboat whose engine had broken down. Coast Guardsmen sighted the pair, Raymond Bochele, 30, and Jean Graye, 20, just before the stricken craft crashed into a stone jetty about 200 yards from the Monmouth beach lifeboat station. Both were treated at Monmouth hospital for exposure.

Anderson Joins E. R. Squibb Co.

Retired Maj. General Takes Position on Board

Major General Frederick L. Anderson, U. S. A. (retired) of Kingston, has been elected to the board of E. R. Squibb and Sons, his first business association since leaving the service. It was learned today.

During the war, the Kingston-born general was deputy commanding general for operations with the United States Strategic Air Forces in Europe.

Champion Bull Will Be at Fair After Long Flight

When Argilla Bell Boy, one of the nation's outstanding Guernsey show bulls, lands Tuesday at Albany Municipal Airport, after an air trip from Oklahoma City he will hold the record as being the heaviest bull carried by air freight in this country. He weighs 2,025 pounds, in pasture or in the air.

Authority for that statement is Lloyd Hofstatter of Hidden Valley Farm, Whiteport, who has purchased Argilla Bell Boy and will exhibit him Wednesday at the Ulster County Fair and Farmers' Field Day at Forsyth Park, this city.

Bell Boy last year won grand championships at eight state fairs, including Ohio, Kansas, Oklahoma, Indiana and Illinois. In addition, he was a prize winner at the Waterloo, Iowa, National Live Stock Exposition, Springfield, Mass.

Mr. Hofstatter purchased Argilla Bell Boy from the Gaylord ranch, Oklahoma City. In addition to the Ulster fair the bull will be shown at the Dutchess County Fair and at the Eastern States Exposition, Springfield, Mass.

Later in the season he will be shown at the Waterloo exposition. Argilla Bell Boy's eastern flight is being conducted by Willis Air Service of Teterboro, New Jersey.

Judges Are Named

Edmund Bower, Ulster county 4-H Club agent, today announced the names of four local men, members of the Kingston Kiwanis Club, who have been selected to serve as deputy cattle judges in cattle judging contests to be held during the Ulster County Fair and Farmers' Field Day, at Forsyth Park, Wednesday, August 20. They are Pratt Boice, Clyde Wenderly, Dr. J. Gifford and Howard St. John. Members of the 4-H Clubs will compete in this field.

Mr. Bower said that the DeLaval Farm Machinery Distributors of Poughkeepsie would donate six blankets to the best-judged animals in each class entered.

Four Persons Are Killed In Upstate Plane Crash

Albany, N. Y., Aug. 18 (AP)—Four persons were killed in an airplane crash at Buffalo and five other persons died in other accidents in upstate New York over the week-end.

Harold V. Ludlow, 47, Binghamton Chamber of Commerce president, was one of the four killed in the crash near Bath Saturday of a single engine Beechcraft Bonanza en route from Binghamton to Ludlow's summer home at Port Huron, Mich.

Others killed in the week were Mrs. Eleanor Buckneridge, 49, of Rockville Center, L. J. Ludlow's (sister); Peter Kronitsky, 24, of 111 Janette (avenue) Binghamton; Broome county amateur golf champion, and William Bates, 28, of 719 Baneroff street, Port Huron, Mich., the pilot.

Deputy Sheriff Ford Hotelling said the plane broke apart 1,000

Labor Law Provision Due Friday

Taft-Hartley Law Will Be Effective Fully; Union Prosecution Is Last Step

N.L.R.B. to Divide

Agency Will Have Two Separate Units for Operation

Washington, Aug. 18 (AP)—America moved today into a memorable week in the history of labor-management relations—the week when the last and biggest chunk of the Taft-Hartley law goes into effect.

The big date is Friday, August 22, 60 days after Congress enacted the law over President Truman's protests.

Unions, for the first time under federal law, will be subject to prosecution before the National Labor Relations board for such practices as coercing employees, refusing to bargain forcing an employer to pay for work not actually performed, and engaging in jurisdictional strikes and certain kinds of boycotts.

Some provisions of the act took effect June 23, but the full weight of the law policy changes decreed by the Republican-controlled Congress will not be felt until Friday.

The N.L.R.B., which has spent 12 years protecting the rights of workers who want to organize into unions, now will protect—in addition—the rights of workers who don't.

It also will protect the rights of employers.

On Friday, the N.L.R.B. will split in effect into two separate agencies: (1) a five-man board, which becomes a labor court, and (2) the "office of the general counsel," headed by Robert N. Donham.

This office will investigate and prosecute cases before the five-man tribunal, and eventually will have perhaps nine or ten times as many employees as the tribunal itself.

N.L.R.B. regional offices, back at their home cities today after converging in Chicago last week to discuss procedures, prepared to issue some new regulations between now and Friday.

Farrell Purchases Woodstock Tavern

Woodstock, Aug. 18—Full interest in the Brass Rail, local tavern, was acquired by Frank Farrell, former part-owner of the business, it was learned today.

Transactions which transferred the business, fully in the name of Farrell were completed Sunday, as John McTigue and Charles Constant, who operated the business with Farrell as a corporation, sold their interest.

The business had been operated by the three men for slightly more than a year.

Attorney Frederick H. Stang represented Farrell in the transaction and the other two men were represented by Attorney John Egan.

Diamond Is Used To Damage Window

Local police make blottier record of various kinds of "cutting up" in town over nearly every week-end, but a notation today was considerably different. It recorded evidence of someone having gone gay with a diamond in the up-town area.

The report at 8:31 a. m. from the manager of the House of Flowers on Fair street said that someone over the week-end had marked the show window of the Fair street store and others in the vicinity with a diamond ring. At least, one of the marks, the report indicated, was damagingly deep.

U. S. Would Have Conference Discuss Hemisphere Arms

Creation of Military Agency Would Empower Group to Talk Over Forces

By PHILIP CLARKE

Quitandinha, Brazil, Aug. 18 (AP)—The United States, formally proposed today that the inter-American Conference discuss immediately the creation of a military agency to back up the hemisphere's mutual defense treaty.

Senator Tom Connally (D-Texas), a member of the U. S. delegation, submitted a United States outline for conference procedure.

It would empower the committee on voting procedure to discuss now "the creation of a hemisphere military agency and the supply of forces." It was previously believed that all discussion on military matters would be for the treaty mechanism for the inter-American Conference at Bogota next January.

The United States Congress is expected to act early next year on the arms standardization act, which would supply uniform weapons of war to the Latin American republics for common defense.

The committee, which elected the Uruguayan Foreign Minister, Mateo Marques Castro, chairman, met soon after the Pan-American Foreign Minister's Conference in Rio de Janeiro, charged that "every Communist party in Latin America is a Russian fifth column." Allaro declared growing conference sentiment "favors joint measures to protect the hemisphere against subversive influences."

Mariano Fiallos Gil presented credentials as a representative of the deposed Arguello government of Nicaragua, which was overthrown recently after 25 days in office. His action posed the thorny question of seating a Nicaraguan delegation.

The 20 nations conferring at the Quitandinha Hotel near Petropolis, 45 miles north of Rio de Janeiro, were seeking means of joint action against aggression under a hemisphere defense treaty. The full conference was to meet at 4 p. m. (2 p. m. Eastern Standard Time).

An informed source said Allaro was slated for election today as president of the all-important committee to design joint action against aggression under a hemisphere defense treaty to be signed by the 20 nations conferring at the Quitandinha Hotel near Petropolis, some 45 miles north of Rio de Janeiro.

Formal installation of committees and election of committee officers were scheduled to begin at 30 a. m. (8 a. m. E.S.T.). A full conference session was set for 4 p. m.

The informant said nobody from the United States was on any of the slates chosen by delegates in a closed meeting last night preliminary to today's election of presidents, vice-presidents and rapporteurs for committee on principles, aggression and treaty execution.

The U. S. delegation had announced its intention not to seek chairmanships. Smaller committees already have organized. Memberships of the big committees were made public yesterday. U. S. Secretary of State George C. Marshall was not on any of them.

Would Boost Rates

Washington, Aug. 18 (AP)—Coastwise steamship lines operating between Atlantic and Gulf ports asked authority today to increase their freight charges in line with the new 16 per cent freight rate increase being asked by railroads.

Orgel's Condition Is Good Following Crash Killing Daughter, Sister-in-Law

Search Continues For Atcheson; Few Rescue Hopes Held

Three Men Tell of Crash of B-17 65 Miles West of Hawaii Sunday

Honolulu, Aug. 18 (AP)—Probing by searchlights, surface ships continued their search early today for Ambassador George Atcheson, Jr., and four other victims of an army plane crash, but chances of their surviving more than 24 hours in a rough sea were so slender that almost no hope remained of finding them alive.

An air search on a reduced scale was set to resume at daylight, however.

Three ranking officers from General MacArthur's strategic operations staff also were among 10 passengers and crewmen lost when the B-17, inbound from Tokyo, crashed into shark-infested waters after running out of gasoline, only 65 miles west of Pearl Harbor.

Diplomatic sources in Washington said that despite Atcheson's vast knowledge of Japanese problems his apparent death probably would not delay arrangements for drawing up the peace treaty with Japan. Preparations for writing a preliminary draft already are well advanced, they said.

Three men of the 13 aboard were rescued yesterday from the choppy sea, dotted with bright souvenir kimonos from Japan, and five bodies were recovered.

Those rescued were Capt. T. L. Rider of Ponca City, Okla., who swam during his long night in the water, reported Atcheson, said nothing as the big plane plunged toward the sea and destruction—"He only smiled very quietly."

Hauled Up From Sea

The five bodies hauled up from the sea included those of Naval Capt. Randolph B. Boyer of Audubon, Minn., or Portsmouth, Va., and Col. David Larr, 222 Thompson Blvd., Watertown, N. Y. Identities of the others were not announced.

(The army newspaper Stars and Stripes in Tokyo said allied headquarters sources had confirmed that the other victims included Col. Carl A. Russell of 1228 Bellevue avenue, Richmond, Heights, Mo., and Capt. K. R. Still, who the paper identified as the pilot. An official source said Army Capt. Cecil Sigmon—no address given—was a member of the crew.)

Russell was an assistant chief of staff under MacArthur. He, Carr and Boyer like the rescues, were members of MacArthur's headquarters, joint strategic plan and operations group.

The pilot bypassed Little Johnson Island, a fueling stop 800 miles west of here, to make the run from Kwajalein direct to Hawaii. One Tokyo source, explaining why the pilot may have bypassed Johnston, said the little island is extremely difficult to find in poor weather.

"I have 25 minutes to the island and have 20 minutes' fuel," the pilot of the converted flying fortress radioed a few minutes before the crash-landing. The radio log of the Navy's Hawaiian Sea Frontier Command showed the tower advised him "your position is 100 miles from Oahu, 260 degrees true (approximately west) from Barber's Point, Oahu."

Impossible to make Oahu, the pilot responded. And, at brief intervals, came those last messages from the plane:

"Number three engine out, at 2,200 feet altitude."

"Number two and three engines dead at 1,400 feet. Losing altitude."

"I'd better go ahead and sit down (crash land) while I have power from two engines."

"It's time for me to hit the water now."

Planes Are Directed

Within minutes, radar operators on Oahu were directing 35 search planes on carefully-charted, parallel courses across the area, while a half-dozen surface craft steamed toward the scene.

The Coast Guard Cutter Hermes rescued the three survivors Sunday morning, transferring them by helicopter to the island.

Would Boost Rates

Washington, Aug. 18 (AP)—Coastwise steamship lines operating between Atlantic and Gulf ports asked authority today to increase their freight charges in line with the new 16 per cent freight rate increase being asked by railroads.

Tragedy Occurs When Car, Trailer-Truck Collide Near Harriman; Driver of Truck Fined $50 on Charge

Samuel Orgel, 46, of Kerhonkson and 629 West 170th street, New York, was reported in good condition at the Tuxedo Hospital this morning following a collision with a trailer-truck Friday afternoon near Harriman which claimed the lives of his daughter, Miss Frances Orgel, 25, same address; and Mrs. Dorothy N. Diamond, 40, of 796 Lafayette avenue, Brooklyn, sister-in-law of the injured man.

According to the Monroe State Police, Mr. Orgel was the operator of the Diamond vehicle, traveling north on Route 32 about 300 yards north of the Short Line Bus Terminal at Harriman when a trailer-truck, operated by Russell McCurdy, 33, of Hightstown, N. J., struck the sedan. Neither McCurdy nor his companion, Philip Thompson, 19, of Philadelphia, Pa., was injured.

Police authorities also said that the Orgels and Mrs. Diamond were en route to Kerhonkson to visit Mr. Orgel's wife at the time of the crash.

McCurdy was immediately arraigned before Justice of the Peace William S. Conklin of Monroe on charges of reckless driving and he pleaded guilty, and was fined $50. No further charges were lodged against the truck driver, pending the outcome of Coroner Kenneth Black's inquest. The coroner issued certificates of accidental deaths for the two women.

After questioning, McCurdy admitted that he had dozed off. He said that he woke up too late to swerve back into the south-bound lane avoiding the crash. Authorities summoned to the crash were Sergeant Herbert J. Berglund, Monroe B.C.L. and Sergeant Lawrence Stoneham and Trooper John Monahan of the uniformed staff at Monroe.

In reconstructing the accident, the police said that the truck was moving south in an improper lane and that Orgel had swung to the left of the highway in an attempt to avoid the collision. The vehicles came together nearly in the center of the roadbed, troopers said.

Buses Take New Uptown Route as Street Is Repaired

With North Front street closed between Fair and Wall streets for a three-day period, the buses of the Kingston City Transportation Corporation, are traversing a slightly different route.

City buses operating on the Broadway line are traveling up Clinton avenue to North Front street, left to Fair street, and down Fair street on the regular route. This eliminates Wall street which is temporarily dead-ended by the construction work in progress at the intersection of North Front street. Passengers who usually board the buses at Whelan's corner will now find the buses at the Stuyvesant Hotel corner, Fair and John streets.

The Fairbourn avenue line buses will also operate through Clinton avenue to North Front street and then down Fair street, following the same temporary detour as the Broadway line.

The Washington-Foxhall line and the Fairbourn avenue line will continue to operate from Whelan's corner left down John street, then right on Crown street to North Front street and then over the regular routes.

According to the bus company, these route changes will be in effect for a three-day period, Monday, Tuesday, and Wednesday, upon notification by Superintendent of Public Works, Ernest A. Stueding.

$100,000 Is Taken

Toronto, Aug. 18 (AP)—Loot believed to total more than $100,000 was taken during the week-end from 33 safety deposit boxes of the Dumas and Chestnut street branch of the Royal Bank of Canada, Toronto police said today. Police gave no immediate details on how entry was gained. The case was similar to an earlier riding safety deposit boxes in a bank at Carp, Ont., in which more than $230,000 was taken.

Water Main Breaks

New York, Aug. 18 (AP)—One of the city's largest water mains, 48 inches in diameter, burst yesterday and for nearly two hours a stream up to 10 inches deep poured through four city blocks near Central Park. Several basements were flooded, a section of pavement was torn out and sidewalks were undermined in several places.

Calwell Gives Estimate

Washington, Aug. 18 (AP)—Arthur A. Calwell, Australian minister of immigration, expressed belief today that Great Britain can only "sustain a future population of 30,000,000 to 35,000,000."

Two Persons Hurt In Esopus Crash

Alloes Bosch, Kathleen Schick Are Taken to Benedictine

A two-car accident on route 9-W in Esopus about midnight last night resulted in injuries to two persons, State Police of the Highland Barracks stated this morning.

Alloes Bosch, 43, of Esopus, and Kathleen Schick, 23, of Connelly, sustained severe lacerations about the head and face, and Miss Schick suffered a fractured right leg, the police said. They were removed to the Benedictine Hospital.

Government Selects Steel As High Price Antagonist

Washington, Aug. 18 (AP)—The government opened its slugging match against high prices today and picked a heavyweight antagonist—the steel industry.

In a "cease and desist" action, the Federal Trade Commission charged the nation's steelmakers with a conspiracy to fix prices and stifle competition.

The complaint filed last night contended that illegal collusion on pricing is fostered by the American Iron and Steel Institute of New York and all of its more than 100 members, including the giant United States Steel Corporation.

There was no immediate industry comment.

The F.T.C. declared that by "devising price cartels" steel producers are able to "dominate and manipulate the markets in which their unorganized customers and consumers must buy."

The action immediately raised the question: Will the Justice Department, in its newly announced investigation of food, clothing and housing prices, seek anti-trust action against steel because of its importance in construction costs? F.T.C. officials said privately they believe not because "we and the Justice Department try to avoid duplication."

The F.T.C. complaint came only a month after industry-wide price increases ranging from $5 to $7 a ton. In ordering them into effect, the industry ignored President Truman's request that it "wait and see" whether the coal wage settlement made price boosts necessary.

All the defendants were instructed to appear for hearing September 19 and were allowed

Broadway May Extend To Thruway

Talk Also Is Heard Locally That Bruyn Avenue May Extend to Lowlands

Police Will Help

Patrolmen and Sheriff Deputies Will Assist State

A study of the Washington avenue outlet into Route 28, including the problem of the narrow, integrating viaduct will be included in the New York State Department of Public Works survey scheduled to start here this week, James S. Bixby, district engineer of the department, said today.

Studies made to date on the state Thruway indicate that an interchange for the Thruway and Route 28 will be constructed about one-third of a mile west of the Esopus creek bridge on the present alignment of the mountain route, the engineer disclosed.

Decision on the type of structure or outlet to be built will be made after a study of the information obtained through the survey.

The purpose of the survey as announced by the state public works department is to compile all possible information on traffic in this and other cities, prior to completion of plans for a state-financed system of urban arterial routes to be undertaken within the city.

This program as announced by the state indicates that a new traffic outlet at the western end of Washington avenue to Route 28 and the Thruway interchange will be built as a state project and apparently without cost to the city.

Two local patrolmen and four men from the sheriff's office will assist in the survey to be conducted by the state department starting Thursday, according to a notice posted by Chief of Police Ernest A. Boss.

Drivers will be given one card to indicate that they have been stopped and another to assist in compiling essential data.

A 12-hour traffic count will be taken at designated stations tomorrow and in the later survey 14 outer cordon stations will be set up on major streets at city lines and 25 inner cordon stations where local police will assist.

Various plans in relation to the thruway will be considered in the survey and possibly local proposals for the extension of certain city streets, which would lead considerable traffic away from congested city areas.

One such plan talked of locally is the extension of Broadway from a point where it intersects Albany avenue over the lowlands to a point where it would join the Thruway. Another is the extension of North Front street from the point where it intersects Clinton avenue to Manor avenue.

Still another plan talked of recently, but not necessarily in connection with the Thruway, is the extension of Bruyn avenue across the lowlands of the area.

Studies made to date on the Thruway indicate, according to the district highway engineer, that the route will skirt the city on the west from a point near Lake Katrine and will cross Route 209 about a mile out of the city.

All plans on the route are still subject to change, the engineer said, and there are still many problems to be considered where the route is planned to cross other main highways of the region.

Local city officials for several years have considered the problem of the Washington avenue viaduct, but each time it was discussed, the possibility that it would be considered as a state project, precluded local action.

Ernest A. Stueding, local superintendent of public works, announced several weeks ago that local officials expected to discuss the problem with state officials sometime before the end of the year, and it is expected now, that the way will be open for such a conference soon after data is compiled as a result of the survey this week.

Flood Hits Sullivan

Jeffersonville, N. Y., Aug. 18 (AP)—Three upper Sullivan county communities struggled today with the effects of a flash flood which occurred Saturday night after a cloudburst and caused a police-estimated $100,000 damage in Jeffersonville alone.

Washington, Aug. 18 (AP)—President Truman's Air Safety Board wants "intensive study" to be given the idea of having all airline passengers ride backwards. In its fifth report since a series of crashes in May and June led to its creation, the special panel observed that "on the surface it seems much can be said for facing seats toward the rear of planes."

Supervisors Will Get Report on Special Taxation

A meeting of the Board of Supervisors will be held at the court house Tuesday evening at which time the report by the committee on imposition of "nuisance taxes" to meet the mandatory increase in teachers' salaries, will be received and the board members will take action. Other routine business will be transacted.

Following a petition from school officials of the county, a committee from the board was appointed to investigate the raising of additional funds to meet this increased cost by the imposition of additional taxes on certain businesses and for the purpose of holding a public hearing to ascertain public sentiment regarding the imposition of "nuisance taxes" which were authorized by the legislature to be imposed by local Boards of Supervisors. The school officials sought to have raised through these special taxes the sum of $398,479.64, or paid at the rate of $26.04 per pupil in average daily attendance. The public hearing was held on July 9 and the report of the committee with its recommendations will be made tomorrow at the board meeting. Following the report the board members will take action on the recommendations of the committee.

by Connors ambulance, where their conditions was reported as satisfactory this morning by hospital authorities.

Bosch was driving south in a 1932 Plymouth, and attempted to make a left turn into the Mount Saint Alphonse grounds in Esopus, where he is employed, when he collided head-on with a 1937 Chevrolet operated by Norman Crotty, 22, of Middletown, the police said.

Miss Schick was an occupant in Crotty's car.

Crotty sustained minor cuts about the head and arms and both knees.

Trooper Elliot Johnson of the Highland Barracks, investigated the accident with Deputy Sheriff Raymond, Winne of the sheriff's office.

No arrests were made.

Orgel's Condition

body of Mr. Orgel was finally removed, however, before the arrival of the Tuxedo Hospital ambulance. Coroner Black of Warwick was summoned and pronounced both women dead.

Authorities said Mrs. Diamond died instantly and that Miss Orgel succumbed to head injuries at the scene a few minutes later.

State Police reported that skid marks on the concrete pavement gave them an accurate picture of how the collision took place. It appeared that McCurdy dozed at the wheel and his vehicle started for the north-bound lane of traffic.

Orgel saw the truck coming toward him, police said, and swerved sharply in an attempt to avoid the crash-up. The police said McCurdy, at this moment, opened his eyes but he swerved the truck too late and the two vehicles collided.

Highway Is Runway

Paoli, Pa., Aug. 18 (AP)—The Lincoln highway became an airplane runway for 20 minutes to permit a plot downed by fog to taxi through this community to a takeoff spot. Jesse Bortell, 26-year-old flyer of Huntington, W. Va., reported to state police after he was forced down in a field yesterday and then found overhead telephone wires prevented a takeoff. Police selected a stretch of highway west of Paoli and stopped traffic while Bortell taxied there with his passenger, Clifford Swan, 22, also of Huntington, and took off.

Committee Will Meet

High Officials Confer Over Bloody Strife in Punjab

New Delhi, Aug. 18 (AP)—High officials of India and Pakistan conferred today in an effort to quell bloody communal strife in the Punjab, which observers feared might be aggravated by a boundary commission's decision dividing the province between the new Hindu and Muslim states.

The conferences were begun in the provincial capital at Lahore, with British military authorities sitting in, as the Commission filed a report yesterday awarding the greater part of both the Punjab and Bengal to Pakistan, which originally had claimed all of both provinces on the ground they had Moslem majorities.

While the governments of India and Pakistan had agreed in advance to accept the Commission's decisions, it appeared unlikely that the militant Sikh minority in the Punjab would be satisfied with the division of that province. Under the Commission's decision, the City of Lahore, ravaged by months of communal rioting, goes to Pakistan. Amritsar, the holy city of the Sikhs 35 miles to the northeast, is to be in India, but another important Sikh shrine—Nankana Sahib, where Guru Nanak, founder of the Sikh religion was born—is well inside Pakistan.

Thousands of Sikhs and Hindus, anticipating that Lahore would be in Pakistan, already had fled the city prior to the Commission's report. Hundreds of others have fled in the city once known as "the Paris of India" during the past three weeks of fighting between the bitterly opposed religious communities.

In Bengal, Calcutta—India's largest city and second in size only to London of all the cities in the British commonwealth—goes to the new Hindu state of India.

The Boundary Commission's report disclosed that all of its decisions were made by its British chairman, Sir Cyril Radcliffe, the Indian members being unable to agree.

While Indian and Pakistan officials met at Lahore, Sikh leaders gathered at Amritsar to decide upon their course of action. There was no immediate indication of their attitude, however.

Government . . .

20 days to file answers. After hearings the commission may order the pricing practices halted within 60 days.

Such an order—equivalent to an injunction and subject to appeal—is enforceable in the courts. The maximum penalty for violation is a $5,000 fine.

F.T.C.'s complaint strikes hardest at the "basing point" system of pricing. The government said it makes the delivered price of steel to a consumer identical, regardless of the length of freight haul, and enables the industry to operate as though all mills were under one ownership and control.

This is the second F.T.C. assault on the industry's pricing methods. In 1924 the commission took action against the "Pittsburgh-plus" system, under which all steel was priced as if delivered from Pittsburgh. The "base-and-differential" order is still in the courts. The industry set up several additional cities to serve as "basing points" on which prices are quoted.

In any given area—sometimes encompassing several states, the commission said—the price quoted for a given steel product is the same from a mill next door as it would be from a mill as much as 200 miles away.

Industry-accepted rules prevent any steel mill from "evading or deviating from" the accepted prices, the F.T.C. went on.

The complaint said the membership of the Iron and Steel Institute includes "all the important steel producers" in the country and all are made answerable in the case.

However, 26 corporations were also named specifically. They include U. S. Steel and eight of its subsidiaries: Bethlehem Steel Corp., New York, and three subsidiaries; Republic Steel Corp., Cleveland, and two subsidiaries; Youngstown Sheet and Tube Co., Youngstown, O., and one subsidiary; National Steel Corp., Pittsburgh, and two subsidiaries; Inland Steel Co., Chicago, and one subsidiary; Jones & McLaughlin Corp., Pittsburgh; American Rolling Mill Co., Middletown, O.; and Wheeling Steel Corp., Wheeling, W. Va.

smallboat to the Destroyer Rowan for the 65-mile trip to Pearl Harbor.

Col. Huglin, interviewed by radio and again when the Rowan reached Pearl Harbor, said "I believe the plane may have broken into several parts, for it sank quickly. . . . I don't know how I got out."

He last saw Acheson, he said, "sitting in the center of the main cabin. I don't know whether he got out."

"So far as I know," he added, "none of Acheson's papers were saved."

Acheson, in addition to advising General MacArthur on political matters, served as chairman of the Four-Power Council for Japan, and as such was a veteran of many a polite disagreement with the Russian—and sometimes British and Chinese—delegates.

He was one of America's foremost experts on Far Eastern affairs. He was on the American sunboat Enany which the boat was bombed and sunk by Japanese in the Yangtze river of China in December, 1937.

Acheson, Denver-born and California-educated, served in the army in the first world war, did newspaper and magazine work, and became student interpreter in the legation at Beijing, China, in 1920. He has been in the Far East almost continuously since.

SILVER ORNAMENTS

BY ALL MEANS!

A letter this morning reads: "I am greatly disturbed by your piece in today's paper in which you disapprove of keeping your silver tea set in the living room where the owner and her guests can enjoy its beauty. When I was married a few months ago I received a good many silver pieces as wedding presents—things like candlesticks, ash trays, cigarette lighters and boxes, vases, bowls and even a lovely lamp base. Now I always have loved silver and would like to use all of these things in my new home. Do you think it is all right for me to keep these things out of all the time or is that ostentatious in a simple home like ours?"

I am sorry that you completely misunderstood my reason for criticizing the leaving of a silver tea set in the living room between tea times. The objection is not because it is silver, but because a tea service should be set for tea and, therefore, it announces to a visitor that refreshments will be served when they are not intended. A tea set belongs in the living room only when it is brought in to serve tea.

On the other hand, silver lamps, photograph frames, boxes and ornaments and all beautiful and suitable. However, silver must be kept polished, but, of course, items used for decorative purposes do not need washing, and, therefore, can be acquired by a silversmith. These items then never need polishing but merely are wiped off with a cloth.

Graduation Gift Not Required

Dear Mrs. Post: I received a graduation invitation from the son of a friend, who is not a very close one. I thought a present was expected so I promptly sent one. I later received a nice thank-you note from the boy. Since then I've been told that a gift was not necessary. Now I'm wondering if it was improper to send something.

Answer: It was very kind. Many things not an obligation are welcome as well as proper.

Mrs. Post has written a leaflet entitled, "Introductions," which includes introducing people on formal or informal occasions. To obtain a copy, send 5 cents in coin and a stamped self-addressed envelope to her in care of Kingston Daily Freeman, P. O. Box 99, Station G, New York 19, N. Y. Mrs. Post is sorry she cannot answer personal mail.

Used Fats
Are Still Badly Needed!

Says the Food Editor of McCall's,
HELEN McCULLY

So many women write to our magazine and ask if they should keep turning in their used cooking fats. Most certainly yes! There is still a shortage—not only in the United States but all over the world. Here is what Secretary of Agriculture Clinton P. Anderson says: "It is still necessary to conserve every pound of used fat, since the over-all fat supply situation is little better now than it was last year." That's why we American women must keep on saving used fats until the world-wide shortage is over!

Perhaps one reason the dollar will not do as much for you as it used to, comments the Wall Street Journal, is the fact that you do not want to do as much for the dollar as you used to.

She was a big, strong woman, and the burglar she had tackled and captured bore unmistakable signs of punishment.
Magistrate—It was very plucky of you, madam, to have set upon the burglar and captured him, but need you have blackened his eyes, and knocked all his front teeth out?

Woman—Well, how was I to know it was a burglar? I'd been up three hours waiting for my husband.

Dodgers Win Two, Near Pennant as Carbondale Drops Twinbill

Lead by 9½ Sets; Alton Gilbert Wins 14th Game

The victory celebration for George Pratt's Kingston Dodgers can't be too far off, in view of week-end developments that saw the pace setters sweep a doubleheader from the hapless Nyack Rocklands, at municipal stadium, while Carbondale and Peekskill both absorbed double drubbings.

Saturday night's "Family Night" game was rained out.

Alton Gilbert and Harry Hintz, a couple of stout pitching worthies, delivered glib edged performances as Kingston copped the opener 11 to 3 behind Hintz, and Gilbert racked up his fourteenth victory of the campaign with a gaudy three-hit shutout in the nightcap.

Tigers Blast Blues

The hard slugging Nazareth Tigers dashed their vain hope to Carbondale's pennant hopes, 12 to 7 and 2 to 1, dropping the Blues 9½ games off the pace.

Peekskill Highlanders, the 1946 champions, who had an outside chance of heading off the Dodgers, had their hopes ground into the dust by an inspired Bloomingdale club, 4 to 2 and 4 to 3.

Kingston's 70th and 71st victories came easily. A farcical performance in the opener made the 11 to 3 triumph a cakewalk for Hintz, who was superbly effective, dropping four hits and a couple of tallies in the first three innings.

Hintz Funs 10

Hintz had his control and when he has it he is a rough customer. He walked only two men, in succession in the fourth and struck out 10 batters. He fanned the side in the fourth. Offensively he produced a single and walk.

The Dodgers broke a 3-2 game wide open in the fourth when a pair of triples by Walt Kowalski and Knobby Rosa, two walks, Ken Braun's single, a sacrifice and error accounted for five runs. Both hits of drive, a ground ball over second base that Bobby Newhard just missed snugging, Dietrich followed with a legitimate single to left field. With his shutout imperiled, Gilbert induced Newhard to No. 4 hitter, to line to right field and Kowalski tossed out Kosik.

Orlemann Blasts Homer

Eddie Harlotta, a capable right-hander, pitched effectively for Nyack, permitting only six hits, but one happened to be Jerry Orlemann's third home run of the season with Rosa on base in the second. It was a line drive to the right field corner and the fleet-footed Orlemann outdistanced the relay to the plate. Gilbert drove in the third run with a single in the sixth.

Orlemann took batting honors with a homer, a single in the nightcap and scored two runs. Kowalski hammered his 18th triple and two singles and drove in three runs in the opener. Knobby Rosa also accounted for three markers with a single and triple. Dietrich, Nyack first sacker, had a double and two singles and drove in a pair.

The Dodgers hit the road for a two-day stand in Mahanoy City tonight, returning to the stadium for a series with Nazareth starting Wednesday night. This is "Family Night" which was rained out.

Shaughnessy To Resume Today

The second game of the City League's Shaughnessy playoffs is scheduled between Chez Emile and Hofbrau at the Athletic Field at 6:15 p. m. today. Jones, Dairy, regular champions, and Morgan's Restaurant tied in the opener last week.

Hofbrau, second place squad in the regular standings with 7 wins and 2 losses, will call on their ace right-hander, Artie Barnes. Lefty Joe Jordan or "Fink" McElraith will pitch for Chez Emile.

out Saturday.

Nurses Hear Talk On Methods Used To Treat Paralysis

Garraghan Outlines Ways Disease Is Treated and How Nurses Are Instructed

Raymond Garraghan, executive member of the Ulster County Chapter of the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis, spoke at a special meeting of all registered nurses of Ulster county at a meeting held Friday evening at the Stuyvesant Hotel.

In explaining the present course given to nurses on polio at New York University and Haverstraw, the speaker said that it was important as the warm fall weather usually brought a break-out of this disease and that the special training needed for care of these patients, should be at the fingertips of each nurse.

Mr. Garraghan said, "candidates for training at the Knickerbocker Hospital in New York will receive the most up-to-date training in diagnosis and treatment of poliomyelitis." He said that the hospital is staffed by an orthopedic pediatrician, a doctor of physical medicine, a supervising orthopedic nurse and a supervising physical therapist. Up to the present, the speaker said, 145 physicians and 62 nurses have been given courses at the Knickerbocker.

Mr. Garraghan also noted that as education of profession and laymen is most important in fighting polio, the Foundation sets up a number of scholarships or fellowships for such specialized fields such as physical therapists, physical therapy teachers, orthopedic surgeons, virologists, pediatricians, public health physicians, sanitary engineers, orthopedic nursing supervisors, teachers, head nurses, medical record librarians and medical social workers. Information on these may be obtained, he said, by writing directly to the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis, Scholarship Section, 120 Broadway, New York 6, N. Y.

Mr. Garraghan also thanked the nurses for their previous cooperation and the excellent service rendered at both hospitals and at the Ellenville Hospital. He said that he hoped he would not need to pray that Ulster county would be free of new polio cases this year.

Friday's special meeting was called by Mrs. William Powers, general chairman of the Ulster County Chapter. Those attending were Ann R. Keegan, Mary L. Keating, Gladys Lynch, Margaret Whitaker, Myrtle Straub, E. Clare O'Brien, Myrtle Storm, Helen Clark, Kathleen Schleeds, Gertrude McGorman, Hazel Dean, Irene Cashin, Kathryn Bennett and Jennie Luchessa, all registered nurses. Members of the executive board, including Mrs. Powers; the speaker, William Kelly; Joseph McTague, Wayne Reynolds and Sophie Miller also attended.

Elissa Landi Will Be Seen Tuesday At the Playhouse

Woodstock, Aug. 18.—The week of August 19 brings to the stage of the Woodstock Playhouse, Elissa Landi in "The Barretts of Wimpole Street."

Both star and play are so well known to the public that elaboration seems unnecessary. Miss Landi, the toast of two continents, is as well known throughout the world as she is to her home city, Kingston.

As Elizabeth Barrett in "The Barretts of Wimpole Street," Miss Landi will return for a second time this season to the stage of the Woodstock Playhouse. She was seen in the season's opening play as Eliza Doolittle in "Pygmalion." As Elizabeth Barrett, Elissa Landi plays a role quite different from that in "Pygmalion." Far from being the cockney gutter snipe of Shaw's play, the "Barretts" she appears as Elizabeth Barrett, immortalized poetess and the wife of Robert Browning.

"The Barretts of Wimpole Street" tells the romantic love story of Elizabeth Barrett and Robert Browning. Elizabeth, one of a family of four sisters and an insanely possessive father who has managed to keep her an invalid and her brothers and sisters mere playthings. Elizabeth revolts from the confinement of life with her terrifying father and goes away with her lover, Robert Browning.

The role of Elizabeth was originally played on the Broadway stage by Katherine Cornell.

Town Board Holds Regular Meeting

Woodstock, Aug. 18.—Members of the Town Board held their regular meeting on Friday evening, in the Town Hall, Woodstock, at 8 o'clock.

Following the general routine of business, it was announced that the road conveyed by the Woodstock Property, Inc. to the Town of Woodstock had been accepted. The road is about one mile in length, beginning at the entrance to the George Neher property, and continuing in a semi-circle to the Ratterman property. A name for the road has not yet been selected.

A proposal was submitted by William H. Hutter, Adolph Heckerroth and Robert Stamburgh that the Board entertain the possibility of a permanent town garage being located on land situated near the Bearsville school. These gentlemen also proposed that a lease be given to the town for crushing and removing stone from a quarry located on the road from Bearsville to Wittenberg, for use in repairing the road.

Supervisor Wilson said that these proposals could not be entertained at this meeting but would be taken under advisement for future consideration.

Moore Plan Gives Help

In reporting receipt of a check in the sum of $1446 under the Moore Plan, Supervisor Wilson explained that the town's budget for health services is cut considerably by the benefits received from the new plan.

Members of the Town Board attending the meeting were Kenneth L. Wilson, supervisor; Grant T. Elvey, town clerk; Harrison Gridley, J. Fitzsimmons, Braendly, Roland Shultis and Ben DeGraff.

A suggestion was made by Highway Superintendent Ben DeGraff that a new Ford truck be purchased to replace the 1937 model now in use. Following a short discussion, Supervisor Wilson recommended that all details pertinent to the purchase of a truck be obtained and submitted at the next meeting for further consideration.

Astori and Stefano Are Guest Artists At Week's Concert

SALVATORE de STEFANO
Alda Astori, pianist, and Salvatore Mario de Stefano, harpist, will be the guest artists on Thursday evening, August 21, in the Methodist Hall, when the Woodstock String Quartet presents their weekly program.

A piano virtuoso and composer, Alda Astori brings to her audiences a sound musicianship, illumined by a talent and temperament which has won the acclaim of critics and the general public wherever she has appeared.

Salvatore Mario de Stefano, internationally renowned harpist, is no stranger to music lovers in Woodstock. Ever since his brilliant performance last year in the Town Hall, Woodstock, his name has been lauded in this community. During the last of the transcontinental tours of the great Enrico Caruso, Mr. de Stefano was the assisting artist. In 1939, he was honored with a request for a guest appearance at the White House, Washington, D. C., where his distinguished playing proved one of the major highlights of the socially important season.

The program for Thursday night's concert includes Passacaglia, Handel's Stefano, Variations on a Theme by Corigli, de Stefano, Alda Astori will play Scherzo, Romanique, Taurier, Arabesque, Debussy; Tempo di Valse, de Stefano; Music Box, de Stefano; Tarantella, de Stefano. Also to be heard will be Suite in C Major, four parts; Zippoli-Alda Astori; Prelude de Stefano; and Spanish Dance No. 1, de Falla, harp and piano duo.

Rests have been made by Trooper Ray Dunn and fines imposed upon traffic violators in the Town of Woodstock, including one for leaving the scene of an accident, which occurred late Friday afternoon when a car being driven by Fritz Flanagan, age 26, of S.D. 1, Kingston, ran into a barn on the property of Bernard Cann, Woodstock, causing some damage. The driver was overtaken by Trooper Dunn, pleaded guilty, and was fined $25.

Grocers Predict Detroiters Rush Selves Into Prices

Windsor, Ont., Aug. 18 (AP)—Grocers in this Canadian border city predicted today that American housewives are going to rush themselves right out of a good thing.

Detroiters have been invading Windsor by the thousands in recent weeks, attracted by the food bargains they can get under Canadian price controls.

Meat cuts costing from 55 cents to 79 cents a pound in Detroit have been selling from 35 to 69 cents a pound here. Eggs bought here at 45 cents a dozen cost 70 cents in Detroit.

But in the past week-end the bargain-hunting crowds from the other side of the Detroit river found signs that eggs were up to 60 cents a dozen. Hamburger that had been 35 cents had disappeared and its place was ground round steak—for 45 cents a pound. There are bargains yet to be found. Certain canned goods and meat still are under price controls. But food market officials said that the gap between Detroit and Windsor prices is getting smaller, as grocers mark up tags where they can to take advantage of the rush.

Saturday's lineups were typical of recent weeks. A four-block queue of American customers, loaded down with packages of meat, eggs, canned goods and vegetables waited to be cleared at the customs.

Purchasers are allowed to take home $5 worth of foodstuffs with payment of a small duty.

"HOKUS-POKUS" WON'T DO IT!

If you intend to order a new roof, don't fall under the spell of wild claims and doubtful guarantees. To have the assurance of a lasting quality job, see your local roofer or the Schryver Lumber Co. about the use of LOGAN LONG Shingles for home and farm buildings. They will give you home added attractiveness and dependably protect it from the blows of "old man weather." Phone Kingston 2000-2001 or Rosendale 33, Kingston 7-3-1 about your new roof. Flat-kote insulated Brick Siding, Red and Buff.

Headquarters for all your roofing requirements, Asphalt, Wood or Slate. "This Is Our 38th Year."
